

The English Test – description

All candidates will take a forty-minute written test in English to assess the candidate's English language proficiency.

The test will consist of four parts.

Parts 1-3 are designed to measure the candidate's ability to recognize and use grammatical structures and vocabulary items. This part of the exam is a multiple-choice test.

Part 4 is designed to measure the candidate's ability to read and understand authentic texts related to the field of economy, management, banking or finance. Candidates will be required to read a text of approximately 500-1000 words and answer a number of multiple-choice questions based on the text.
